

YOUR TAILGATING CHEAT SHEET

TAILGATING

A SOCIAL EVENT HELD AROUND THE TAILGATE OF A VEHICLE, USUALLY BEFORE A SPORTING EVENT. ALWAYS INCLUDES DELICIOUS FOOD AND COLD BEVERAGES.

#1 TAILGATE TIP

ALWAYS MAKE EXTRA FOOD.

Big Green Egg
The Ultimate Cooking Experience®

THE TIMELINE

BASED ON A 7:30 PM GAME. ADJUST IF YOUR TEAM IS PLAYING EARLIER FOR MAXIMUM TAILGATE-ABILITY.

NIGHT BEFORE

- Prep your food the best you can so it's ready to go tomorrow. Make sure you have plenty of ice in the cooler so it doesn't spoil.

10 AM DAY OF

- Scout the perfect tailgate site and set up camp. You may want to do this earlier depending on how dedicated your teams' fans are!

10:30 AM

- Fire up the EGG, fill your cooler with cold ones & set up the Bean Bag Toss.

11 AM

- Prep your food. Put on EGG once food is ready to cook. Things are about to smell GOOD.

NOON

- It's lunch time! Make sure everyone around smells how fantastic your food is.

1:30 PM

- Time to break out the Bean Bag Toss and grab a cold one...or two.

2:15 PM

- Make friends with the fans in the spot next to you. Let them sample some of your jealousy-inducing food because they're rooting for the same team.

3:30 PM

- See rival fans drive by looking for a spot. You're out of samples to share...darn! If you have a TV or radio, catch a 3:30 game.

4 PM

- Toss some more food on the EGG. Get ready for dinner because you can't go to a football game hungry!

5 PM

- Dinner is served! Close the vents so the EGG can adequately cool before you head into the stadium.

6:45 PM

- MAKE SURE THE EGG IS COMPLETELY COOL BEFORE PUTTING IN YOUR CAR. Head off to see your team win!

7:30 PM

- Kickoff!

WINNING RECIPES TO TRY

THESE FOODS ARE GREAT BECAUSE THEY'RE EASY TO PREPARE, TRANSPORT & SHARE.

- Sticky Buns in a Stir Fry/Paella Pan
- Cinnamon Roll Breakfast Bake in a Drip Pan
- Quiche in a Deep Dish Baking Stone
- Chili in a Dutch Oven
- Wings with your favorite sauce, indirect
- Brats, on a bun or on skewers with veggies, grilled
- Pigs in a Blanket, indirect on a Baking Stone
- Sliders with your favorite ingredients, grilled

DON'T FORGET

- Speakers for tunes
- A nice, big cooler full of ice
- Your grilling tools
- Plates, cups & lots of paper towels
- Games! Our favorite is Bean Bag Toss

TAILGATE WITH THE BEST
